VanEck shortens product names of its ETFs and ETNs

Frankfurt, 16 February 2022 – Asset manager VanEck is changing the names of its UCITS ETFs and ETNs across Europe and removing the suffix “Vectors” from all product names. In Germany, this affects all 36 currently tradable offerings, including 27 VanEck ETFs and eleven ETNs.

By deleting the previous name component “Vectors”, all product names are shortened accordingly, for example, the VanEck Vectors™ Video Gaming and eSports UCITS ETF is assigned the new name VanEck Video Gaming and eSports UCITS ETF.

However, the renaming does not result in any further changes for investors. Product features, such as fees, underlying indices, investment objectives, product pages as well as ISINs and security identification numbers (WKN), remain unchanged under the new names.

“By rebranding our ETFs and ETNs here in Europe, we are further unifying our global product family and can continue to sharpen the VanEck name as a brand”, commented Martijn Rozemuller, CEO at VanEck Europe.
